CHAPTER 3 – DECORUM IN PROCEEDINGS

3.181 PUBLIC ACCESS COVERAGE

Public access coverage is allowed in the common area located on the second floor of the Deschutes County Courthouse. Special effort should be made to reduce any disruption caused by media coverage on the public and/or court proceedings.

CHAPTER 4 – PROCEEDINGS IN CRIMINAL CASES

4.040 NO MOTIONS FOR RECONSIDERATION; EXCEPTIONS

- (1) Except as provided under (2), no motion for reconsideration on any pretrial, trial, or post-trial criminal matter may be considered or heard by any judge sitting in the 11th Judicial District.
- (2) Exceptions:
 - (a) Reconsideration may, at the court’s discretion, be allowed upon motion if the moving party specifically identifies newly-decided, newly-enacted, or previously undisclosed and controlling legal authority.
 - (b) The provisions of paragraph (1) do not apply to any statutory motion to modify, set aside, vacate, suppress, or rescind.

- (c) Nothing in this rule limits the authority of a judge to review any previously decided matters on the court's own motion.

CHAPTER 5 – PROCEEDINGS IN CIVIL CASES

5.045 NO MOTIONS FOR RECONSIDERATION; EXCEPTIONS

- (1) Except as provided under (2), no motion for reconsideration on any pretrial, trial, or post-trial civil matter may be considered or heard by any judge sitting in the 11th Judicial District.
- (2) Exceptions:
 - (b) Reconsideration may, at the court's discretion, be allowed upon motion if the moving party specifically identifies newly-decided, newly-enacted, or previously undisclosed and controlling legal authority.
 - (b) The provisions of paragraph (1) do not apply to any statutory motion to modify, set aside, vacate, suppress, or rescind.
 - (c) Nothing in this rule limits the authority of a judge to review any previously decided matters on the court's own motion.

CHAPTER 6 – TRIALS

6.012 SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

- (1) If one party requests a pretrial settlement conference, or in cases designated by the court, a mandatory settlement conference shall be held. However, scheduling of a settlement conference is subject to judicial availability and a settlement conference shall not be scheduled so as to delay trial of the case. The pretrial settlement conference will not be required if the opposing party demonstrates good cause why the settlement conference should not be held.
- (2) Any request for a judicial settlement conference should be made by written motion supported by an affidavit containing the following information:
 - (a) The date of filing of the case and, in civil and domestic relations cases, the date each defendant or respondent was served;

- (b) In criminal cases, defendant's release status and, if defendant is in custody, whether defendant has waived his or her right to trial within sixty (60) days;
 - (c) All future court dates, including the trial date, if set;
 - (d) Anticipated length of trial;
 - (e) Prior trial dates;
 - (f) Status of the pleadings, i.e. whether all pleadings have been filed and the case is at issue;
 - (g) Status of discovery and whether the discovery process has been completed;
 - (h) Whether motions must be heard prior to the settlement conference and whether such motions have been filed;
 - (i) A detailed description of the efforts the parties have made to date to settle the case without the assistance of the court (do not disclose any details regarding offers of settlement);
 - (j) A description of all unsettled matters in the case;
 - (k) The position of all parties and counsel regarding the motion for a judicial settlement conference;
 - (l) Whether non-judicial settlement options are available and, if so, why such non-judicial options are not being used; and
 - (m) Reasons that demonstrate a particular need for a judicial settlement conference.
- (3) The decision on the motion for judicial settlement conference will be made by the assigned trial judge. No case will be scheduled for a judicial settlement conference unless the assigned trial judge has ordered that the case be so scheduled. The court will prepare an appropriate order. A form of order scheduling a settlement conference is attached as set forth in Appendix 1.
- (4) The purpose of the settlement conference is to provide a forum to resolve disputes before trial through the active participation of counsel and the court. The attendance of all parties and their trial attorneys is required. When a party is insured, a representative of the insurance company with authority to settle the case shall be in attendance. Upon a showing of good cause, the judge conducting the settlement conference may excuse a party from personally appearing, but the party may be required to participate by conference call.

- (5) Pretrial settlement conferences shall be conducted by a judge other than the assigned trial judge, unless all parties stipulate in writing that the trial judge may also conduct the settlement conference.
- (6) For a meaningful settlement conference to occur, all attorneys and parties must participate in good faith. The failure of any person to comply with these rules, appear at, or participate in a settlement conference, unless good cause is shown for any such failure, may result in the court imposing appropriate sanctions as described in UTCR 1.090. Cases set for a settlement conference shall retain their place on the trial docket.
- (7) If settlement negotiations are not successful, counsel should be prepared to proceed to trial on the date scheduled. The court will make every effort to ensure the case proceeds to trial on the date scheduled.
- (8) If a settlement is reached, the parties shall place notice of the settlement on the record before the scheduled trial date, in accordance with UTCR 6.020.

CHAPTER 7 – CASE MANAGEMENT AND CALENDARING

7.005 ENTRY OF GUILTY PLEA BY ATTORNEY IN MISDEMEANOR CASES IN DEFENDANT'S ABSENCE

When an attorney enters a guilty plea for a non-appearing defendant charged with a misdemeanor, the attorney shall submit a guilty plea petition filled out and signed by the defendant. The plea petition shall be similar to that provided by this court.

7.015 SETTING MOTION AND TRIAL DATE IN CRIMINAL CASES

- (1) Criminal motions are set or reset in court or by telephone. Counsel is required to have their calendars available when setting and resetting dates. The court may provide written confirmation of the date.
- (2) Criminal trials are set in court. When cases are continued under UTCR 6.030, criminal trials may be reset in court or by telephone. Counsel is required to have their calendars available when setting and resetting dates. The court may provide written confirmation of the date.

7.025 SETTING MOTION AND TRIAL DATE IN CIVIL CASES

- (1) Civil motions are set and reset by telephone with the court customarily not providing written confirmation of the date or may be set by written notice without prior consultation with counsel. Civil motions may also be set in court or in chambers during a pretrial conference with counsel being required to appear in person or by conference call with their calendars.

- (2) Civil trials are set by filing a Notice of Trial Readiness and Trial Date Availability form (Appendix 2) within the time frame designated in UTCR 7.020(6). Filing the Notice of Trial Readiness and Trial Date Availability form satisfies the requirements of UTCR 7.020(6)(a). The Notice of Trial Readiness and Trial Date Availability form should be used to request a conference with the presiding judge or designee under UTCR 7.020(6)(b).

7.036 MANDATORY APPEARANCE IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

Counsel for the defendant, the defendant and counsel for the state with the authority to negotiate, must appear at the following settings unless waived by the court within 48 hours before the scheduled hearing: plea/set trial hearings, pretrial conferences, trial call and trial.

7.042 MOTION FOR CHANGE OF JUDGE

An affidavit and motion for change of judge shall be made at the time and in the manner prescribed in ORS 14.260.

7.045 SETTING MOTION DATES IN DISSOLUTION CASES

- (1) Dissolution motions may be set in court, in chambers during a pretrial conference or by telephone. Counsel is required to have their calendars available when setting and resetting dates. The court may provide written confirmation of the date.

7.055 SETTING SHOW CAUSE HEARINGS

- (1) Show cause hearings are set by telephone or may also be set by written notice without prior consultation with counsel. The court may confirm the date on a pre-stamped postcard or copy of the order, if provided by counsel.
- (2) Show cause hearings are reset by telephone. The attorney is instructed to prepare an order postponing the hearing to the new date and time, and that order is served on all other parties. Occasionally a show cause hearing is reset in court with all parties present and written confirmation is not provided by the court.

CHAPTER 8 – DOMESTIC RELATIONS PROCEEDINGS

8.012 TIME FOR FILING CERTAIN DOCUMENTS IN DOMESTIC RELATIONS PROCEEDINGS

The following documents must be filed with the court and a courtesy copy must be provided to the judge not less than one full business day prior to the beginning of the trial in actions for dissolution of marriage, separate maintenance, annulment, child custody, and child support:

8.045 TEMPORARY PROTECTIVE ORDERS OF RESTRAINT AND EX PARTE CUSTODY/ PARENTING TIME ORDERS

Issuance of a temporary protective order of restraint or an ex parte temporary order providing for the custody of, or parenting time with, a child is governed by ORS 107.095 and ORS 107.097.

8.046 EDUCATION FOR PARENTS

- (1) The following cases are subject to this rule: annulment or dissolution of marriage actions, legal separation actions, petitions to establish custody or parenting time and post-judgment litigation involving custody or parenting time.
- (2) All parties, where the interest of a child under the age of eighteen (18) years is involved, shall successfully complete the education for divorcing parents program offered by the court designated providers or a pre-approved alternative education program. Parties shall register for the program or make application for approval of an alternate program within fifteen (15) days of receiving notice of this education requirement. All parties shall complete the program before the initial pretrial conference.

- (3) Notice and instructions to the petitioner of the requirement that the parties complete the education program or alternative education program will be provided by the trial court administrator when the petition is filed. Petitioner, when serving the respondent with the petition, shall also include a copy of the trial court administrator's notice. The petitioner's return of service on the respondent shall indicate service of the notice with the summons and petition.
- (4) Each party shall pay a fee determined by the program provider to cover program costs. The fee may be waived if the party presents a verified affidavit of indigency to the court, and the party meets indigency guidelines.
- (5) Each person who successfully completes the court's program or the preapproved alternative program shall present a certificate of completion to the judge at the pretrial conference.
- (6) Upon a showing of good cause, a party may request a waiver of this rule. The request must be made by motion, supported by affidavit, and filed within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the trial court administrator's notice.
- (7) Court action on a petition shall not be delayed by a party's refusal or delay in completing the program unless the non-complying party is the petitioner or the moving party. Upon a party's failure to successfully complete the education program pursuant to this rule, the assigned judge may take appropriate action including, but not limited to, proceedings for contempt.

8.055 ORDERS TO SHOW CAUSE

See SLR 7.045 for scheduling matters in domestic relations proceedings.

- (1) The procedures of this rule are limited to domestic relations cases. Domestic relations cases shall mean petitions for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, paternity, custody, filiations and interstate support proceedings. A contempt proceeding arising out of a domestic relations case is not covered by this rule.
- (2) An order to show cause will be allowed only upon the motion of a party supported by affidavit. The order to show cause will not contain a date for hearing. It shall provide that the adverse party must file a written response in opposition within fourteen (14) days from the date of service of the order and affidavit, or within such additional time as allowed by the court upon a showing of good cause. The order must further advise the adverse party that if such written response in opposition is not so filed and served within the fourteen (14) days, the order requested by the motion and show cause order will be granted and entered by the court. (An example order is attached as set forth in Appendix 3.) Post-judgment motions to set aside, alter or modify any terms of the judgment shall provide that the adverse party must file and serve a written response in opposition to the motion within thirty (30) days from the date of the service of the order and affidavit. The order must further advise the adverse party that if such written response in opposition is not so filed and served within thirty (30) days, the order requested by the motion and show cause order will be granted and entered by the court.

- (3) If the opposing party fails to file the written response in opposition within the time allowed, the moving party shall forthwith submit an order allowing the relief requested in the order to show cause. The court reserves the right to require the taking of testimony of the moving party in such default matters. The court reserves the right to enter the order requested if the opposing party does not file the written response in opposition and may do so upon its own motion if the moving party fails to present for signature the order required above.
- (4) Except for pendente lite motions for temporary child or spousal support, upon the opposing party filing a written response in opposition, either party shall forthwith, by motion, request a hearing date to be set to determine the issues raised by the motion to show cause and the affidavit. If either party fails to submit a motion requesting such hearing date, the court reserves the right to set such date on its own motion. The first paragraph of motion requesting a hearing date shall include the information required by UTCR 5.050.
- (5) Except for pendente lite motions for temporary child or spousal support, this procedure shall apply to all orders to show cause in domestic relations matters whether they be pretrial or post-judgment or any other matters properly raised by the procedure of an order to show cause.
- (6) Pendente lite motions for temporary child and spousal support filed pursuant to ORS 107.095(1)(a) and (b) and other motions for temporary financial orders filed pursuant to ORS 107.095(1)(f) shall be determined without testimony, based on an affidavit and a Uniform Support Declaration from each party. Such motions shall be filed separately from other pendente lite motions. In any case involving temporary child support, the affidavit filed by each party shall include a child support computation worksheet. When the matter is ready for decision, the moving party shall notify the court by filing a Notice of Readiness for Decision. (An example notice is attached as set forth in Appendix 4.)

The objecting party should advise the court clerk that the objecting party wishes to make oral objections to the petition.
