

Adult foster homes

Adults foster homes have five or fewer residents. To protect individuals' privacy, we may only provide general information about suspected or confirmed cases of COVID-19 among residents or staff members. To find out if an adult foster home is currently restricting new admissions because of COVID-19 exposure, please call the facility. To look up the adult foster home's phone number, visit our facility search website.

As of April 3, 2020:

- 6 adult foster homes reported confirmed cases of COVID-19
- 11 adult foster homes reported they have suspected cases of COVID-19 with tests pending.
