

Adult foster homes

Adult foster homes have five or fewer residents. To protect individuals' privacy, we may only provide general information about adult foster homes that are currently restricting new admissions because of COVID-19 exposure. For information on an individual adult foster home, please reach out to the home directly. To look up the adult foster home's phone number, visit our facility search website.

As of October 18, 2021:

- 22 adult foster homes reported that they had confirmed cases of COVID-19.
- 2 adult foster homes reported that they have suspected cases of COVID-19 with tests pending.
